America is under attack, according to Kelly John Walker from "Real Freedom Talk," who says he spoke with a Border Patrol source back in the fall who warned him that a "massive migrant caravan" is headed towards Lukeville, Ariz.

The source allegedly told Walker that Border Patrol is conducting daily flights in the area due to increased violence against agents working the border in Lukeville, but that the situation is rapidly deteriorating.

"As soon as agents try to hold the line they are getting rocked by guys on the south side in Mexico," the source is quoted as saying. "Just flew by a group of about 500 give ups they were taking care of in Lukeville."

What the Border Patrol agent and many others want to know is this: Why is the corporate media not even covering the situation in Lukeville? We are hearing almost daily about the situation in Texas, but why is Arizona being ignored?

"Any idea why mainstream media won't cover this, specifically in Lukeville, Ariz.?" the Border Patrol agent asked of Walker. "If the media just covered the soft-site facilities in Tucson, Casa Alitas, and Lukeville, Ariz., the general population would be blown away!"

Border Patrol receiving unconstitutional orders

A second Border Patrol source who spoke with Walker affirmed the claims. He stated that none of what the first agent told Walker is an exaggeration, and that agents are "drowning out here and the violence from the south side has picked up like I've never seen before."

"Two shootings in the last week," the first agent also said. "I guess we need to just keep speaking up and more people will start to speak out themselves."

"The border is out of control right now. Me and some teammates are brainstorming on what to do. The orders that Border Patrol is getting [are] completely unconstitutional."

It turns out that the United States Congress is doing absolutely nothing, as usual, to stop the bleeding. One elected representative told Walker that the reason for the total lack of leadership in Congress is because "we're focused on diversity, equity, and inclusion."

"[This is the] same dream team that screwed Afghanistan – so weak that Hamas launched a historic attack on their watch, took many U.S. hostages, proxy groups shooting at U.S. ships, etc. [Congress] might consider supporting that under strong leadership, [but] not [under] this admin," the congressional source stated.

All of this was planned many years ago, by the way. It is an invasion plot that was unconstitutionally hatched, and that is now manifesting with increasing severity as this attack from within on the U.S. fulfills the "unrestricted warfare" tactics outlined by People's Liberation Army (PLA) colonels Qiao Liang and Wang Xiangsui in their 1999 Unrestricted Warfare playbook.

"Metanational threats transcend the nation state borders, operating on an interregional or even global scale," Liang and Xiangsui wrote. "They include religious movements [such as Islam], international criminal organizations [like the Mexican cartel], and informal economic organizations that facilitate weapons proliferation [look to Iran and Hezbollah]."

"We can point out a number of other means and methods used to fight a non-military war, some of which already exist and some of which may exist in the future," they added.

"... psychological warfare (spreading rumors to intimidate the enemy and break down his will); smuggling warfare (throwing markets into confusion and attacking economic order); media warfare (manipulating what people see and hear in order to lead public opinion along); drug warfare (obtaining sudden and huge illicit profits by spreading disaster in other countries)."
